Life Thoughts.

[Selected for the Alexandria Gazette.] It is often said it is no matter what a man believes if he is only sincere. This is true of all minor truths, but false of all truths whose nature it is to fashion a man's life. It will make no difference in man's harvest whether he thinks corn is better than wheat; but let the man sincerely believe that seed planted without ploughing is as good as with, and that cockle and will it make no difference? A lie always needs a truth for a handle to it, else the hand would cut itself which sought to drive it home upon another. The werst lies, therefore, are those whose blade is false, but whose hadle is true.

seed will produce as good a harvest as wheat,

In this world, full often, our joys are only the tender shadows which our sorrows cast. If you wind up the weights of a clock and point the hands to the proper figures, and go away, you will find them in the same place an hour later. Set it again, and an hour later it will be as you left it. What does it need? It needs to have the pendulum swing, and then it will keep time-swing the pendulum of active duties, and life expression of thoughts and feelings. Your hearts must be always ticking if you would have them keep time with the Sun of righteousness.

Half the trouble for which men go slouching in prayer to God are caused by their intolerable pride. Many of our cases are but a morbid way of looking at our privileges. We let our blessings get mouldy, and then call them curses.

The man who carries a lantern in a dark night can have friends all around him, walking safely by the help of its rays, and be not defrauded. So he who has the God-given light of hope in his breast can help on many others in this world's darkness, not to his own loss, but to their precious gain.

A helping word to one in trouble is often like a switch on a railroad track—but one inch between wreck and smooth-rolling prosperity.

The mother's heart is the child's school-room. We say a man is "ruined." Are his wife and children dead? O, no. Have they had a quar rel, and are they separated from him? O, no. Has he lost his reputation through crime? No. Is his reason gone? No. Is he struck through with disease? No. He has lost his property, and he is ruined. The man ruined! When shall we learn that "a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he pos-

RICHES AND HAPPINESS.-Riches, alone, will make no one happy. In the first place, there is no such thing as complete, unalloyed bliss, in this state of existence, and even the nearest approach to it is not attained without something besides wealth. Of course the possession of property to a reasonable extent contributes most essentially to one's enjoyment. A house for shelter, fire for warmth, food and clothing—surely it cannot be reasonably contended that a person without all, or any of these, is in a condition favorable to happiness. Diogenes, with nothing but a tub, would make a sorry show in these days however, he may be made a full line of first class goods for SPRING and SUMMER wear, consisting of FRENCH AND a sorry show in these days, however, he may figure as a character in classics. He would be taken for the hen pecked husband of some washer-woman who had no more manly occupation than to carry about her washing utensils, and probably fun would be poked at him for not having a clothes wringer along with his tub. But those who rely solely on wealth for happiness will be disappointed greviously. Happiness depends mainly on the cultivation of the mind and heart; on the faithful performance of duty, in secret as well as openly; amid reproach and obloquy, as well as when cheered by words of encouragement or applause. It depends on courage to sustain us in the trials of this life, and the hope which extends to another. It depends upon the love and confidence of kindred, and friends and acquaintances. What wealth and property can do toward promoting happiness at the same time is not inconsiderable. It supplies us with means of intellectual culture, as well as of physical comfort. It has been well remarked that money is a hared master, but good servant. As a master it cramps both body and soul, making its victim a detestable miser. As a servant it is many handed, and in ordinary affairs and extraordinary emergencies may, to a great extent, be safely relied on.

NOT ENOUGH GIRLS TO GO ROUND.-The complete census returns of the United States for 1870, reveal the startling fact, that, in our whole population, there is an excess of 428,859 of men and boys over women and girls. The figures stand thus:

19,493,666

Men and Boys, 19,064,806 Women and Girls, There is something really shocking in these statistics when it is considered that Adam and Eve, one man and one woman, is the law of the creation. But as in the chapter of accidents there are more fatalities among boys than girls, and more widows that widowers, and more old maids than old bachelors, our surplus of men and boys is in the infautile, and not in the adult population. However, in order to relieve the painful apprehensions of the male population, and not to rely solely upon accidents to make "the thing about even," we demand the instant suppression of Brigham Young and his whole tribe of poligamists. - Winchester Times.

SEPTEMBER. -The month of September was dedicated by the Romans to Vulcan. Now, one of the names of Vulcan was Mulciber, from Mulceo, to delight to soften, enervate, &c. "Voluptas aninum mulcet," says Ovid-luxury softens or enervates the mind. The wife of Vulcan was Venus, who rules over the sign Libra, which the Sun passes through this month. The name of Mulciber applied to Vulcan, and the character of the sign, which, according to astrology, causes a mild, quiet, even turn of mind but voluptpous, tend to show the original illusion to the power of Ven us, the Goddess of Luxury, over the Sun while in this sign. One of the feasts held in this month was jointly sacred to Venus and Saturn; now the astrologers teach that Libra is the house of Venus and the exhalation of Saturn. This feast therefore alluded originally to the lower of these two planets in that sign.

Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent?
Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy

Member of the Royal College of Surgery of London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and else-where, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or mar-

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz:
Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Func-tions, General Debility, Symtoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, already described, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in pernicious habits. Such persons must, before comtemplat-

ing. Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds o this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery de ters him from applying to those who, from edu-cation and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose iall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns."

It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or ferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and Happiness in despair leaves him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
